The Sermon On The Mount

Pentecost Sunday

“...you will receive power (dynamis) when the Holy Spirit comes on you...”

“We cannot successfully live the Christian life in our own strength; the Father has sent the Holy Spirit to empower us; we are commanded in scripture to ‘be filled with the Holy Spirit’.”

**—
John Wimber

Pentecost before Pentecost

“These festivals awakened echoes of the great story which dominated the long memories of Jewish people, the story of the Exodus from Egypt, when God fulfilled his promises to Abraham by rescuing his people. Passover was the time when the lambs were sacrificed, and the Israelites were saved from the avenging angel who slew the firstborn of the Egyptians. Off went the Israelites that very night, and passed through the Red Sea into the Sinai desert.

Then, 50 days after Passover, they came to Mount Sinai, where Moses received the law. Pentecost, the fiftieth day, isn't (in other words) just about the 'first fruits', the sheaf which says the harvest has begun. It's about God giving to his redeemed people the way of life by which they must now carry out his purposes."

Jesus' Ascension & The Sending of the HS

“Here, Jesus has gone up into heaven in the ascension, and... he is now coming down again, not with a written law carved on tablets of stone, but with the dynamic energy of the law, designed to be written on human hearts.”

Acts 2: The Arrival of the Holy Spirit

“The Divine Energy”

“The Holy Spirit is the love relationship between the Father and the Son. It is this relationship itself that is gratuitously given to us! Or better, we are included inside this love. Wow. This is salvation in one wonderful snapshot.”
